A Rare Treat.

Hannibal Williams, the noted interpreter of Shakespeare, has been engaged by the Ladies' Aid society of the Congregational church to stage his famous production of "King Henry IV." in the opera hall on Tuesday evening, Nov. 16th. Mr. Williams has toured this country and for the past five years has been abroad giving his productions. The above play has been given more than 2000 times by Mr. Williams and has been enthusiastically received everywhere. This will be a rare treat for the patrons of Orleans and a large audience should greet him. Do not forget the date. General admission 35c. No reserved seats.

The serious accidents causing the death of three football players the past few weeks and the crippling of several others has caused the disbanding of the Orleans High School team. The parents of several of the young men refused their permission to play. The team was giving a good account of itself winning both games with the Lyndonville team and playing the St. Johnsbury team to a standstill, equally dividing the honors. Prof. Fletcher deserves great credit for the development of a first class team.

Mr. Tinkham, representing the E. Howard Clock company of Boston, was in town Monday on business. The tower of the Congregational church was examined and it was found that a four and one half foot dial could be placed. Before leaving town Mr. Tinkham received an order from Skinner French & Company for one of their best tower clocks with an illuminating dial. The tower will be placed in readiness as soon as possible and the clock installed. This will fill a long felt want of the village and Skinner, French & Company are to be congratulated for their generosity and civic pride. Who will be next?

Real Estate for Sale

No. 66.—ONE MAN FARM. Contains about 27 acres of nice land on main road, one and one-half miles from Orleans. Has R. F. D. and telephone; spring water in house and other places on the farm. Some wood, apple orchard, lawn and shade trees. Location one of the best. This farm is well located for any kind of farming you like. Only a short distance from five villages, two of them smart railroad towns. House story and one-half with ell, large woodshed and piazza; small barn with three stalls; wagon shed that will hold four carriages. The house has ten well finished rooms, all in good repair. Inside and out blinds for the windows, nice cellar and you can buy it for $1200 if sold at once. HOYT, Orleans, Vt.

31.—BEAUTIFUL VILLAGE HOME Located in one of the slickest villages in Orleans county, with churches, school, good stores, shops of all kinds, large saw-mill and everything in this line that one could make use of; house one and one-half story with ell, woodshed and barn. All in good repair inside and out, finished upstairs and down. Has 10 rooms, three piazzas, fine lawn and shade trees; good cellar, running water; could be used for two families or is well located for keeping boarders. Has seven or eight acres of nice land with buildings. Good chance to sell garden stuff or keep a few cows and sell milk. Is only four miles from railroad on fine carriage road. Price $1700; enough down so the mortgage paper could be shifted for cash. This property must be sold to settle an estate. This is the reason for the low price quoted. Now, if you want a home be sure and see this, for it won't cost you anything to look it over. Write, call or telephone George Hoyt, Orleans, Vt.

BALDWIN APPLES! GREENING APPLES!

We have struck a streak of "luck," and that means "good luck" for our patrons. A few days ago a man down the line had a car of apples set in and the first day after the car was set he was injured while trying to stop a runaway horse. He was unable to handle the apples and telephoned for me. I bought the lot at a big discount and am giving my customers the benefit. Only a few barrels of the old fashioned R. I. Greenings left. These are entirely different from the N. H. apples and are guaranteed to be good keepers.
